

Horses and Family enjoying a cold November day

The wind chill was far below zero Sunday.

The horses love the work.

Horses John and Blue are pulling the sled.

John, the black on the near side is 20 years old.

John tires sooner than he did when he was younger but he is a good reliable worker.

He knows his job and listens well.

When teamed with a willing, younger horse like Blue, John will let the young horse pull all he wants.

Blue, the eight-year-old mustang on the far side is nearing his prime.

He pulls like wild.

Gail and I adopted Blue seven years ago.

We train all our horses to ride and drive.

The early snow and deep cold have made farm work challenging.

But this is fine weather for bobsledding.
