

Old house from the southeast Probably 1941.

This is an early view of the old house from the southeast. Probably 1941.

There is no fuel barrel outside the living room, on the right.

Ma's big garden was to the right, beyond the woven wire fence.

Notice how small the porch vine is in this picture.

This possibly their first photo on the farm.

I never saw Pa park so far forward.

This photo was likely taken at the same time as the corresponding southwest photo.
