

2024 Tenth lamb with Ella. Of 2024

Saturday the tenth lamb was born.

The mom is a mostly black, hair sheep, and the father is a mixed breed, white, wool sheep.

Ella does the chores on Sunday mornings.

I asked her to check the sheep closely.

Sunday was a particularly beautiful spring morning.

Later, I saw her walking toward the house with the Saturday lamb in her arms. I immediately thought the lamb was sick or injured.

I was in the library which has lots of windows-walls and a sliding glass door.

Ella slid the door open and just smiled with the lamb in her arms. I asked what was wrong. She replied, "Nothing, I just thought this lamb is especially cute".

I agree.

The first photo is of Ella and the auburn-colored lamb.

The second photo is a selfie of Gail, Ella, and the lamb.

Happy Spring.
Tom

